

Winnie + music player = a music playing teddy bear

Mix to the max!

You've got a crazy product idea. A bright yellow teddy bear plays a jingle when you press it on the nose? But how?

Then you should know that there lurks a simple solution around the corner. The only thing you need to do is to sketch, write or talk about the idea to us.

We have contacts around the world with designers and producers who know to manufacture new ideas at reasonable costs. After you have approved the prototype and price will be mix to the max.

Book on time. Expect delivery times of 2-4 months, depending on how complicated the product is.

Think big and pay less

When time is money

You think big. You need 5000 coffee mugs with print and you have found an ideal product in our range.

The problem is that the mugs must be delivered within 15 working days. Please stay calm, we fix it! Unfortunately, we have to charge you our stock price because time is tight. But that is ok for your because the important thing is that the product will arrive on time, right?

However, if you give us a little more time, we have an even better offer in store for you. Let's say you can plan 3 months ahead instead of 3 weeks. Then you can prepare yourself for a pleasant surprise. Hey presto, the price has been cut back drastically.

So the world's biggest cliché is the truth of the day - time is money!

Fast delivery

Large volumes and 1-2 weeks delivery = stock price.

Book early

Large volumes and 2 - 4 months delivery = much lower price
